DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under both the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 and the Marine Insurance Act 1909, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurers' decision on whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those to the insurers before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:-

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurers;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurers know or, in the ordinary course of their business ought to know;
- when compliance with your duty is waived by the insurers.

NON-DISCLOSURE

Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 applies:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurers may avoid the contract of insurance from its beginning.

Where the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 applies:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure the insurers may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or, in certain circumstances, they may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurers may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

PRIVACY

Privacy legislation regulates the way private sector organisations can collect, use, keep secure and disclose personal information. QBE has developed a privacy policy which explains what sort of personal information we hold about you and what we do with it. You can obtain a copy of the QBE Privacy information brochure from any QBE Marine office or from our website at www.qbemarine.com

SIGNATURE AND DECLARATION

I/We acknowledge that as the Applicant(s):-

1. I/We must act with the utmost good faith in respect of any matter in relation to this insurance.
2. I/We have a duty of disclosure as stated in this application form.
3. I/We confirm that all the answers and statements in this application are correct and that no information has been withheld which may affect the Company's decision to accept this application or the terms of the proposed policy.
